ABOUT CASA COOK

Casa Cook is Thomas Cook’s newest breed of hotels designed to cater for trend-conscious travellers who seek a laid-back and authentic holiday experience. Casa Cook provides a home away from home, with an individual design that creates a warm and relaxed atmosphere. Guests can indulge in their love for fresh, locally produced food, culture and design whilst listening to latest DJ sounds.

As adventurers, creatives, foodies and dreamers, we’ve travelled the world meeting like-minded souls along the way. With Casa Cook we aim to create places that bring together people with shared interests and ideals. Retreats for a community to connect and grow. With rich experiences shaped by urban cultures across the globe.

RECRUITING FOR OUR NEW IBIZA HOTEL

Our newest hotel located in Cala Gracio will open in July this year, and we are excited to announce a recruitment drive to fill more than 100 new roles.

The 189-room adults-only hotel includes stunning penthouse rooms with large terraces as well as a private four-bedroom villa with pool.

To support our guests in achieving their ideal holiday experience, we need talented hospitality folk who have a real passion for food and drink and understand how to deliver the laidback luxury experience of Casa Cook.

The roles, which start June 17th, are a mixture of temporary and permanent positions working in the kitchen, restaurant, front office, repairs & maintenance, house-keeping, administration and the Spa.

Successful applicants will benefit from an extensive training programme with Thomas Cook’s own hospitality team as well as external experts. Joining Thomas Cook’s 22,000 global workforce will also offer wide-ranging career opportunities within hospitality and ample progression.
